

2019 Women's Basketball End of Season Review

Positives	Areas for Improvement
In general, I've had very positive interactions with the team. Even  	1. In-season travel is always disruptive to students' academics. While the  absences, I think we need to figure out a better system for study hall on the road. Having a single team study hall doesn't always feel productive, and I think we can brainstorm ways to maximize the effectiveness of any academic staff traveling with the team.  I think the scheduled practice time is one of our biggest challenges,

Constant support from fans
(growing support, attendance)

Constantly changing tutors Challenges with perceptions of athletes on campus
Lack of dedicated practice facility
